Mr. and Mrs. James Rivers
Kingston
Tennessee

Dear Brother and Sister Rivers:

Thank you so much for a pleasant day spent in your home. You were all so extremely thoughtful of me and my family. As we traveled back to Cookeville Sunday evening, Sue and I talked at length about ~~how~~ what a wonderful Christian home you have and what an influence for good you and your family are.

We imposed on you in many ways, but you were so kind in receiving us and making our day, our Sunday in Kingston, a very pleasant one.

Please give my deepest love and regards to your three fine children who are away from home. Your two girls at home were so very nice to our children; they thoroughly enjoyed being with them. Thank you for everything.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
